

Clark Elementary School, Charlottesville, VA
Architect: VMDO Architects, Charlottesville, VA

Charlottesville City Schools brilliant transformations through their comprehensive modernization program continues to deliver amazing results. From the design process and engagement of the community to every aspect of space and its requirements to engage their personalized learning pedagogy, the results clearly speak to their systematic process. The renovations enhance the desired preferences for all-embracing agile environments specifically focusing on reading areas, technology and natural lighting.

<https://www.vmdo.com/clark-elementary-modernization.html>